The following Rules are made by His Highness' Government, in pursuance of Sections 4 and 28 of the Excise, Opium and Drugs Law of the Alwar State.

Nothing in these rules shall be deemed to authorize the import of excisable articles from, their export to, or their transport through any foreign territory or any part of British India or of any State otherwise than in accordance with the Laws, Regulations, and Rules in force in such territory, part or State regarding the export, import or transport (as the case may be) of the same.

SECTION I

Raw Opium and other Intoxicating Drugs.

Chapter I

Licenses and Contracts for the sale of raw opium, poppy-heads and hemp drugs.

1. Raw opium, poppy heads and hems drugs for consumption in the territory of His Highness Raj Rajeshwar Shri Sewai Maharaj Veerendra Shiromani Dev may, at the discretion of His Highness' Government be imported either:-

(a) by the Excise department or

(b) by a contractor

Under a permit obtained from the Political Agent and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed therein

2 (a) Raw opium, poppy-heads and hemp drugs imported by the Excise Department shall be stored at the State warehouse at the capital, and thence issued to contractors or licensed retail vendors on payment of such prices and duties as may from time to time be prescribed by His Highness' Government in that behalf.

(b) Raw opium, poppy-heads and hemp drugs imported by a contractor shall be consigned to the Inspector in charge of the State warehouse at the capital, and there dealt with in accordance with the rules in that behalf.

3 ( 1 ). Shops for the sale of raw opium, poppy-heads and hemp drugs shall be allowed only at such places as the Chief Excise Officer, with the sanction of the Chief Excise Authority, may from time to time determine.

( 2 ). The Chief Excise Officer with the sanction of the Chief Excise Authority, may either:-

- ( a ) sell by public auction, early in August of each year, the exclusive right of selling such drugs by retail at each shops, or
- ( b ) grant by contract, by public auction, or in such other manner as the Chief Excise Authority may prescribe the exclusive privilege of retail sale of such drugs throughout H. H.s' territory. When such a contract is granted, the contractor may, subject to the conditions of his contract, himself sell by retail or grant licenses over the countersignature of the Chief Excise Officer for the retail sale of such drugs at the shops allowed under clause ( 1 ) of this rule.

Every such sale or grant must be reported to the Chief Excise Authority for sanction, and unless the Chief Excise Authority otherwise specially directs, every such sale or grant shall be for one year only. No exclusive right thus sold or granted shall be exercised until a license or contract has been granted by the Chief Excise Officer in the prescribed form.

4. The amount for which a license or contract is sold shall be called the license or contract fee and it shall be payable in the following manner -

- ( a ) One sixth of the total amount for which the license or contract is granted shall be deposited in the Treasury by the person whose bid has been accepted within one week of such acceptance,
- ( b ) The remaining 5/6th shall be paid in equal monthly instalments spread over the period for which the license or contract is granted, excluding the last two months of such period. Each instalment shall be paid on the first day of the month in respect of which the instalment is due.

5. If the person whose bid has been accepted or to whom a contract has been granted fails to make the deposit required by the preceding rules, the acceptance of such bid or the grant of the contract may be revoked and the license again put to auction or the contract auctioned or otherwise disposed of. Any difference between the original license fee and the fee secured by such re-auction or disposal may be recovered in the same manner provided for the recovery of the arrears of land revenue in section 92 of the Revenue Code of 1903.

6. If after making the deposit required by clause (a) of rule 4 the person making such deposit refuses or neglects to take the license or contract or if after taking the said license or contract he fails to pay a monthly instalment of the fee as required by clause (b) of rule 4 or refuses or fails to carry on the business or to comply at any time with all or any of the terms or conditions of the license or contract the Chief Excise Authority may cancel the license or contract and forfeit to the State the amount of deposit and of any instalment paid up to the date of such refusal, failure or breach, and may make such arrangements for carrying on the business for which the license or contract is granted for the unexpired portion of the term as he may think fit.

If the license fee secured by such arrangements is less than the amount of the original license fee, the difference may after deducting the deposit and license fees (if any) already paid by the defaulter, be recovered in the manner provided for the recovery of land revenue in section 92 of revenue code of 1903.

7. (a) any authority granting a license or contract under these rules may require a contractor or a licensee to give such security for the observance of the terms of his contract or license or to make such deposit in lieu of security as such authority may think fit which may be forfeited in case of breach

(b) the forfeiture of security under the 1st clause of this rule shall not operate as a bar to, or otherwise affect any other proceedings which may lawfully be taken against the contractor or licensee in respect of the terms of his contract or license.

8. A contract or license granted under these rules may at any time be forthwith revoked and cancelled by the Chief Excise Authority.

(a) if the contractor or licensee becomes physically or mentally or otherwise incapable for any period exceeding one month of personally carrying on his business under his contract or license

(b) if the contractor or license holder be declared insolvent or be imprisoned for any criminal offence.

(c) for any cause specified in the contract or license.

9. The person to whom any contract or license is granted, shall not be entitled to demand any payment or compensation whatsoever in respect of:-

- ( a ) any decrease from any cause whatsoever in the estimated annual or total income derived from such contract or license,
- ( b ) any taxation rate or duty at any time imposed under any law for the time being in force,
- ( c ) any alteration in the rules having the force of law under the excise act made during the continuance of such contract of license,

( The foregoing are in addition to the duties, if any, levied at the sources of supply ).

30. On arrival of a consignment at the warehouse, the Inspector in charge shall notify the contractor and instruct him to attend, personally or by agent, the verification of the consignment. If he fails so to attend, the Inspector shall verify the consignment in his absence.

31. The packages shall first be counted, weighed and compared with the entries in the accompanying pass and railway receipt, and the condition of the packages and seals noted.

32. Poppy heads and bhang shall ordinarily be weighed in their original packages, an allowance of 4 seers per maund shall be made for packing materials, and the gross weight of each package after such deduction shall be deemed to be the net weight of the package and shall be entered in Register No. 1. Packages containing raw opium, charas and ganja shall be opened and the net weight of their contents ascertained, and the same procedure shall be observed in relation to any package of poppy heads or bhang which appears to have been tampered with.

33. If the gross or net weight as the case may be of any package, as ascertained in accordance with the foregoing rule, is less than that shown in the accompanying pass and railway receipt, and the difference is greater than can reasonably be attributed to dryage in transit, the Inspector in charge shall report the matter for the orders of the Chief Excise Officer. If it exceeds that entered in the pass or railway receipt, the net weight ascertained in accordance with rule 4 shall be deemed to be the actual weight of the contents of the package.

34. After completing the verification of each consignment, the Inspector in charge shall endorse the result of verification on the accompanying pass, and shall send the same to the Chief Excise Officer, who shall transmit the same or a copy thereof to the proper officer of the State or area from which the drugs were imported.

35. After verification, the drugs shall be stored in separate rooms allotted to each class of drug. To each room will be affixed a lock the key of which will remain in the custody of the Inspector, and the contractor or his agent shall also be permitted to affix his own lock to each room.

36. The contractor or his agent shall, when he desired to remove drugs, submit an application stating the description and quantity of the drugs to be removed. The Inspector will thereupon prepare a Dakhila (or invoice) in triplicate, in Form No. 2, retaining one copy in his office and handing the other two over to the applicant, by whom they shall be presented, together with the amount of import duty entered therein, to the treasurer of the Alwar Sub-Treasury. The Treasurer, after ascertaining that the amount tendered is correct, shall credit the money in the Sub-Treasury, retain one copy of the dakhila, endorse on the other the receipt of the money, and return it to the applicant together with treasury receipt for the duty. The applicant shall then present the dakhila to the Inspector in charge of the warehouse, who shall prepare a pass in Form No 3 for the removal of the drugs, and shall permit their removal.

37. (a) - Poppy heads and bhang shall be removed from the warehouse only in whole packages, the net weight of whose contents shall be deemed to be that recorded in accordance with rules 30 and 31. Other drugs shall not be removed from the warehouse in less than the following quantities at one time viz -

Raw opium	20 seers
Charas	5 seers
Ganja	10 seers

( b ) The contractor shall not supply drugs to licensed retail vendors in less than the following quantities at one time viz.-

Raw opium	4 chataks
Poppy heads	2½ seers
Charas	2 chataks
Ganja	4 chataks
Bhang	2½ seers

38. Statement in Form 4 showing the wholesale prices at which the contractor sells drugs to licensed retail vendors, and the retail prices at which he requires retail vendors to sell them to the public shall be maintained both by the contractor and by the Inspector, and any changes proposed by the contractor shall at once be communicated to the Chief Excise Officer.

39. Stock book and register of passes shall be maintained in forms Nos. 5 and 6 respectively and monthly total of these registers shall be submitted in the same forms to the Excise Officer by the 5th of the next month.

40. All registers at the warehouse shall be maintained in English. The necessary forms will be printed both in English and in Hindi.

41. The Chief Excise Officer shall, at least twice a month, pay an unexpected visit of inspection to the warehouse, and report the result for the information of the Chief Excise Authority in such form ( if any ) as may be prescribed by him.

42. All charges on account of the conveyance of drugs from the railway station to the warehouse shall be borne by the contractor, and all labour required for weighing, unpacking and handling the same shall be borne by him.
